

I am very concerned about proposed relaxation of ownership concentration rules. I believe allowing for more concentrated ownership would not cause entertainment markets to be better served, and would dangerously reduce diversity in news reporting and commentary.